A Place ... Of God's Presence

Singing Hills has been a haven for Christian groups from all over New England for over 35 years. The backdrop of peaceful fields, woodlands, beautiful chapels, recreation areas, and our mountain view dining room, provide the perfect setting for your Christ-centered camp, conference, or retreat in any season.

Our ministry of hospitality provides you with all the tools to make your time here a life-changing event. Promoting Christ through your program has always been our purpose.

We provide:

- A beautiful and spacious property to bring your people, to teach them more about God in a natural outdoor setting.
- Time to focus on your group apart from your normal environment.
- Flexibility to set your own pace and program for your event.
- The ability for non-English speaking groups to have a Christian retreat as they are ministered to by their own leaders.

"Singing Hills is truly a refuge in the times of storm. Loving, caring, sharing never ceases here. It is such a blessing to be where God's Word is foremost..."

-Al and Edna
