What not to bring

Alcoholic beverages and pets are not allowed at Singing Hills.

What is the menu like?

Snacks and semi-buffet type meals are provided within the cost of your retreat. You may bring your own snacks or dietary provisions. We have a small refrigerator, microwave oven, and 24/7 coffee, tea, hot chocolate available to you. A Gluten Free substitution list, salad bar, plus plentiful vegetables and fruit option are available.

May I bring my husband or small child?

In the spirit of ministering to hurting women we ask that you not bring husbands and children to the retreat.

Do I have to attend the speaker's sessions?

You will not want to miss any sessions, but if you do for rest or health needs, we do not take attendance.

To promote and support our Christ-centered purposes, we ask that conversation and behavior be appropriate to the setting of our center.

Speaker Lori Stanley Roeleveld

Lori Stanley Roeleveld is a writer, life coach and speaker. She's authored four award-winning books and has contributed to a dozen more. Lori is a coach with Take Heart! Christian Coaching. Though she has degrees in Psychology and

Biblical Studies, Lori learned the most from studying her Bible in life's trenches. Rhode Islander, wife, mom, grandmom, and part-time giant-slayer, Lori will bring us the topic: "The Overcoming Heart." In challenging times, how do we not lose heart? How do we persevere without losing our sense of joy, wonder, and faith? With time in God's Word full of wisdom and laughter, we'll look at all the ways God has equipped us to have resilient hearts that will survive and even thrive no matter what life brings. Four sessions will answer the following questions:

1. God-Hearted: What does life look like if we're people "after God's own heart?"
2. Heart-Guarded: Why does God warn us to guard our hearts and how do we do that while still loving others?
3. Heart Ignored: What are the signs that we are losing heart and why should we not ignore them?
4. Heart Restored: How does God restore our hearts and how can we make ourselves available for restoration?

There will also be free time during the retreat to reflect, rest, hike, and maybe do a few crafts.

More About Lori:

I studied Psychology and Biblical Studies at Barrington College, (a small Christian college in RI, now merged with Gordon College in MA). I served the Lord for one summer mission trip in Japan where it was widely agreed that God was NOT calling me into foreign missions. I still tried hard to leave Rhode Island, but the Lord had other plans.

I worked for years at runaway shelters and group homes until I married Rob. Then, I stayed home to raise free-range Christian children. God blessed me with two: Zack and Hannah. We homeschooled them through high school and both are young adults.

While I was homeschooling, I also taught women's church and community Bible studies, led youth groups, and taught high school Sunday school. I played guitar on worship teams and earned a black belt in karate while leading a Bible study for black belt women. For 10 years, I worked a day job as a Wraparound facilitator in a program designed for struggling families. I live across the street from where I grew up in a home my husband is redeeming from condemnation. I'm adapting to mothering adults. Rob and I have been married over 34 years. He's my soul mate although that doesn't necessarily play out as peacefully and harmoniously on a daily basis as you would think. He's a craftsman and self-employed carpenter. I write, speak, and coach full-time.

My husband and I are active in our small-town church.

About Singing Hills Christian Conference Center

Singing Hills provides a worshipful setting just far enough from home, yet a close destination from all New England and Eastern New York. The beautiful, secluded property provides a safe and exceptional place where groups and individuals can come to find or grow in Christ.

The "She Seeks" retreat is one of several Christian retreats we offer called Faithcrafting events. Formerly called the "Courage to Carry On Retreat" for women hurting from life's circumstances, we renamed the retreat in 2022 to reflect our purpose of providing women with answers to a broad range of life's questions.

The apostle Paul in his letter to the Ephesians talks about deepening your faith, and we chose these verses as the theme and purpose of our own Faithcrafting events. Join us this year for an amazing experience crafting, growing, and deepening your faith.

"I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ." Ephesians 3:16-18
